

Ignite Your Career

The SCI is pleased to launch a new fireside chat speaker series for SCI and SCI-CCTO staff. The series will feature a diverse range of speakers from all levels of the organization – both the SCI and the broader School of Medicine - who will tell the unique story of their career path, including their road to their current position, highs and lows along the way, pivotal moments, reflections on paths taken and not taken, and advice they would give to their younger selves.

Last Friday of the Month

12:00-1:00 pm
